PART II — RULES 12b-25(b) AND (c)

If the subject report could not be filed without unreasonable effort or expense and the registrant seeks relief pursuant to Rule 12b-25(b), the following should be completed. (Check box if appropriate)

- [X] (a) The reason described in reasonable detail in Part III of this form could not be eliminated without unreasonable effort or expense
(b) The subject annual report, semi-annual report, transition report on Form 10-K, Form 20-F, Form 11-K or Form NSAR, or portion thereof, will be filed on or before the fifteenth calendar day following the prescribed due date; or the subject quarterly report or transition report on Form 10-Q, or portion thereof will be filed on or before the fifth calendar day following the prescribed due date; and
(c) The accountant's statement or other exhibit required by Rule 12b-25(c) has been attached if applicable.

PART III — NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, N-SAR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

On January 5, 2004, the registrant acquired Infinium Labs Operating Corporation, a Delaware corporation formerly known as Infinium Labs Corporation ("Old Infinium"), through a merger of Global Infinium Merger Sub, Inc., a Delaware corporation and wholly-owned subsidiary of the registrant (the "Merger Sub"), with and into Old Infinium (the "Merger"). When the registrant was finalizing its Form 10-KSB for filing on March 30, 2004, it discovered a Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") policy which may require the registrant to file a transition report on Form 10-KSB or 10-QSB (the "Transition Report") with financial statements of Old Infinium for the period from November 1, 2003 through December 31, 2003. If such SEC policy applies, the Transition Report may be required to be filed as early as 90 days following the consummation of the acquisition, or April 5, 2004. Because the registrant was previously unaware of the existence of the SEC policy, it had not prepared the required financial statements and could not do so without unreasonable effort and expense between the period when it learned of the policy on March 30, 2004 and the date that the Transition Report may have been required to be filed on April 5, 2004. This Form 12b-25 is being filed to permit the registrant to remain in compliance with SEC requirements if a Transition Report was due on April 5, 2004. If the registrant determines that a Transition Report was due on April 5, 2004, the registrant intends to file such report on or before April 20, 2004, if the registrant determines that a transition report on Form 10-KSB is required, or April 12, 2004, if the registrant determines that a transition report on Form 10-QSB is required.
